JOURNAL
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 29 August 1968

1. [] Placed a call to Major Wheelock, Bureau of the Budget, in connection with the [] In his absence I explained to his secretary that we were drawing together our report and that we were meeting with General Accounting Office representatives at their request to review the essential facts. Major Wheelock's secretary said she would pass on this message to him and she felt he would then give us a call.

2. [] Together with [] OGC, met with Messrs. Jim Crouch and Judd Thompson, GAO regional office, to review the facts of employment pertaining to []

[] All aspects of the meeting appeared to be completely satisfactory from the Agency's viewpoint and fruitful on the behalf of GAO. Messrs. Crouch and Thompson will be assembling the recommendation for review of their General Counsel office which will prepare GAO's report to the House Judiciary Committee. I explained that I was not in a position to give them a copy of [] (classified secret), but that there would be no problem in giving them a memorandum authenticating the relevant facts of employment which we had discussed. This is being prepared.
